

Certificate of Currency

a surveyor registered under the Surveying and Spatial Information Act 2002, certify that, from the date of the completion of the survey shown on the survey certificate:

- (a) there are no changes to the boundaries of the land to which the survey relates (the subject land), and the definition of those boundaries in the plan of survey remains consistent with surrounding plans, or if not, the plan of survey has been updated;
- (b) 2 or more of the permanent survey marks used in the survey remain in place, or if not, the plan of survey has been updated;
- (c) all reference marks placed in respect of the survey remain in place, or if not, the reference marks have been replaced and the plan of survey has been updated; and
- (d) there has been no change to the occupations and other improvements relevant to the boundaries of the subject land since the completion of the survey, or if not, the plan of survey has been updated.

Text below this line is part of the instructions and should not be reproduced as part of a final document.

1. A plan of survey that is updated for the purposes of this Certificate of Currency is to be done in accordance with the Surveying and Spatial Information Act 2002 and the Regulation under that Act as in force at the time when the survey was completed.
2. This Certificate of Currency must be provided in its entirety on the administration sheets of the plan to which it relates. Each of the matters listed in this Certificate of Currency must be certified (except if the Registrar-General is satisfied that it was not reasonably practicable to do so proof of which must accompany this certificate, in which case, the matter may be struck through).
3. This Certificate of Currency is referred to in clause 31 Conveyancing (General) Regulation 2018.
